OF THE LATE GEORGE HUTTON IS BEING CONTESTED

Mrs. Bartlett, His Widow, Seeks to Have Last Will Set Aside

SAYS HE WAS OF UNSOUND
MIND WHEN HE MADE IT

On Witness Stand She Declares
He Tried to Commit Suicide
Three Times

The will of the late George Hutton, of Edmonton, filed for probate in the Supreme Court, is being contested, and before Mr. Justice Walsh. The plaintiff in the action is Mrs. Alice C. Bartlett, widow of the late George Hutton, and now wife of S. J. Bartlett, who was employed as coachman by Hutton before the latter's death. The claim is to have set aside the last will of the deceased in favor of a former one.

The defendants in the action are Robert G. Bull, Harold Hayward Carlee (executors), Hannah R. Hutton, Josephine Schinner, Hilda Hutton, Wilda Hutton, Alice Maloney, Eusey Flynn, Edward White, Elizabeth Carlee, Clarence Maloney, Alice Bull, Eileen Wood, George Schinner, Connie, Fred Parkinson, Bruce Parkinson and Clayton Parkinson (beneficiaries).

Frank Ford, K.C., G. M. Hagan, K.C., and N. H. Linley are appearing for the plaintiff. Mr. Frederick H. McCaul, K.C., for the defendants. H. G. Bull and H. H. Parker, Esq., for Edward White, G. M. Hagan, K.C., for the Parkinsons, and F. C. Jamieson, of Edmonton, Jamieson and Grant, for the will in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Mrs. Bartlett Takes Evidence

Out in the evidence heard in the morning was that given by the widow of the deceased, who was examined by Mr. Ford. She made many sensational statements regarding attempts the deceased is alleged to have made on his life previous to the making of the last will. She also said that on more than one occasion her former husband had gone "broke," and that in the most prominent one, on land which he had purchased, he had sold land belonging to her, and left to her by her father.

The deceased, George Hutton, who was a resident of Edmonton, died on January 23, 1911. Before his death he made a will appointing H. G. Bull and H. H. Parker as executors. Evidently to the date of the last will, he was sane and of sound mind, according to the evidence.

The first of the plaintiff's set out in the statement of claim, is that at the time of the making of the last will the deceased was not of sound mind. For many years prior to his death he and his wife had been interested generally in the purchase and sale of various parcels of land in the city of Edmonton. Some of the lands in which both were interested were held in the name of George Hutton alone, and there were also held in his name at his death lands in which Hutton had in effect no interest, and in respect to which he was the bare trustee for his wife. Prior to his death lands in which his wife was beneficially interested, wholly or partly, were sold and the proceeds thereof, as a portion of the estate, exceeding Hutton's interest, were applied by him in the purchase of other lands, which remained in his name at the time of his death.

The defendants, H. G. Bull and H. H. Parker, have, as executors, entered into possession, and have collected debts and profits, and claim to be the owners of the whole beneficial interests in the land.

The plaintiff claims that that action be taken to declare void, and that action be taken to ascertain the legitimate interests of Mrs. Bartlett in the lands in Hutton's name at the time of his death.

Statements of Evidence

The defense is a denial of the allegations regarding the state of the deceased's mind at the time his last will was made. They claim that Mrs. Bartlett and Hutton were never at any time beneficially interested in the purchase and sale of the said lands, and, if so, in none of the lands in which Hutton had an interest at the time of his death were the two generally interested, or in respect to which was Hutton the bare trustee.

Any lands in which the plaintiff was beneficially interested were sold prior to the death of George Hutton, and were any lands bought by him with proceeds thereof, and if so any such lands remained in the name of the deceased in the joint names of the plaintiff and Hutton.

The case will probably last all the week, as there are upwards of forty witnesses to be examined.

At the time Mrs. Bartlett was still on the stand when the court adjourned this morning.

Attempts on His Life

She stated that on one occasion prior to the making of the second will she witnessed that her husband was in a small party of persons. At that time he told her that his intention was to commit suicide, and that had the scene been sharper he would not have been able to tell her about it. On another occasion she found a packet of "rocks" on a table in his room, and when asked about it he stated that he did intend to take it, but he changed his mind as the packet was not strong enough. One day witness found Hutton in his bed, very sick. He had admitted that he had tried to commit suicide by taking a bottle of medicine which contained some strichnine. On that occasion he was vomiting, and the effects were noticeable some time after the taking of this bottle. The deceased man had taken out of witness trunk, where she had placed it so that Hutton could not get it.

Said Her Property

Speaking of the business of Hutton, Mrs. Bartlett stated that, on more than one occasion her husband had gone broke, and, in order to lose other lands and make payments, he had sold some of her property. It was in her name, and had been left to her by her father. Property on First street, on which is situated an office block, was at the time of the sale in her name, and Hutton had sold it for $10,000. He gave her $2,000 of this money, but kept the remaining $8,000, which he had used to buy other property. She also referred to another sale of her property which belonged to her, and while she could not remember how much Hutton kept from the proceeds of the sale, she knew that he had retained some of it.

The matter of property near Morinville was also mentioned by Mrs. Ford, but as the witness could not remember just how much property there was there, she was not asked in question as to it. Morinville is in question was situated at Morinville or near it, and the witness was objected to by Mr. McCaul.

The court then adjourned until this afternoon.

Afternoon Session

Mrs. Alice C. Bartlett was on the witness stand all day yesterday at the hearing of the Hutton will case, before Mr. Justice Walsh. She testified after two until half-past four she saw a witness cross-examination by C. McCaul, K.C., covering matters that occurred from August, 1910, until the end of that year. On several occasions she became hysterical, and in desperation she asked Justice Walsh to allow her to go, as she felt she could not answer any more questions. Her lordship asked her how long in court all day she thought it only to be in the witness stand, the proceedings stop for the day.

Questioned regarding the interview possible on the property which she stated she was the owner of, she could not remember what she said, but she knew that it amounted to about $215 a month. When pressed for more particulars, she suggested that Mr. McCaul go with her to her house and she would show him the property.

"All right," said the counsel, "I will probably go tonight."

And you had better be careful, too," retorted the witness, "for I have got rather a foreboding dog."

Reference was then made to the new residence which had been purchased by her late husband to build it was seen witness, to cost about $10,000, and she stated that she had seen it for about $20,000. There was an agreement in respect to the property, which was situated on the corner of Victoria and Fourth street, between herself and her husband, that this was to be a home for Mr. Hutton as he lived on the lot.

"And you are now living in that house with the man who succeeded Mr. Hutton in your affairs?" asked the counsel. "Yes, because it is my property," answered the witness.

Continuing she stated that Mr. Bull had a great deal more influence with Mr. Hutton than she and that she was Mr. Bull that had not him to sign the agreement.

On January 6th the deceased man was interviewed with Edward White, who was managing his farm out at Morinville. At that time a check was made out to him for $7,000. She could not say whether Mr. Hutton was alone or whether he was accompanied by her. Certain it was that he was not looking after his business the way he should have done.

Suffered From Delusion

One occasion Mr. Hutton suffered from delusion. On one occasion she had no money, and that there was no food in the house, and she did not sleep one night and started looking for work.

When regarding the treatment Mr. Hutton was subjected to after witness had seen to the fact that he was crazy, and whether she did not think it necessary to get a trained nurse to look after him, witness replied, "I did my duty to him and that is more than you would have done under the circumstances."

Mrs. Bartlett added that deceased was not to bed all the time, until a few weeks previous to his death, and when she saw a copy of her evidence during the examination for discovery, which stated that Mr. Hutton had been confined to bed since August, 1910, until the time of his death, she thought that she could not be expected to remember the exact dates as everything happened so long ago.

One Woman Refused Him

Questioned regarding the allegation that Mr. Hutton was insane, she stated that she had told her husband that she was bothered him greatly, and when he said in his way on many occasions she told the witness that he would go away with himself.

On one occasion she was asked by the deceased man if she thought God would forgive him if he committed suicide, she replied, "Your mother should have told you that when you were a boy, and then you would have known."

Does it not strike you that was a perfectly rational question for a man to ask, or do you think that was a question of an insane man who was contemplating suicide?" asked Mr. McCaul, never thought of that, replied the witness.

Suffered From Delusion

Before his wife Hutton then suffered from the delusion that he was very poor, and he was under that illusion at the time he made the will. She stated that she could not explain why a man who was worth $100,000 to one person, $10,000 to another, and so on should think he was poor.

If you actually owned everything then he must have been very poor, suggested Mr. McCaul. "Yes, but everything was not in my name," replied the witness.

The court then adjourned until this morning.

THEATRES AND MUSIC

twenty minutes in the telling, but it alone is well worth an evening's wait. For the rest of the bill, not so much may be said. It is a brave vaudeville and nothing more. Mr. Fred Lind may give some remarkable exhibitions of facility in handling the Australian stock whip—some twenty-five feet long and with a handle of eighteen inches. Miss Edna Showalter, soprano, gave a brilliant set of coquettish, for which she was heartily applauded. Then she dropped to semi-popular music and combined with a hardy prelude, "The Last Room of Summer," and did not win such spontaneous favor. Albert Sam Tyler is a written some exceedingly popular songs, but even with the assistance of Miss Dorothy Snow, he made but a poor impression. Margaret Lee and company give an amateurish exhibition in a semi-farced sketch dealing with stumming, entitled "The Stummers." Shary and Turk do some soft-soled and hard-boiled dancing and attempt to sing, while Asaki, a Japanese equilibrist does some clever work on roller skates.

ANIMAL ACT FEATURE OF PANTHEON BILL

The fifth installment of the circus at Pantheon theatre this week consisting of Little Hip, a small sized elephant and Napoleon a monkey of almost human intelligence is decidedly the best animal act that has yet been seen at the Jasper avenue variety house. There is no doubt about it—both the animals have been trained to a point where they can do some things on their own initiative and by their own intelligence. Napoleon the monkey seems to like it, and does many things that look beyond the possible. Little Hip plays football with the audience and talks to his trainer.

Walter Le Roy and Emily Holton have been lately making a head line in the city by their cleverness in the act titled "A Horse on a Hog." Some of their humor is of the perennial variety but they "get it over" effectively. Mr. Le Roy, as Hogan, gives a characterization of an Irishman that goes down individuality.

The Three Jinks who open the bill with an equilateral act, are clever. Their turn lasts only about seven minutes but is good. Rice and Franklin supply the audience with half a dozen new jokes in their sketch "You by You." The act was received somewhat coolly by the audience, but the humor of the man and woman who present it made almost as much humor out of the sketch as possible.

The xylophone play the xylophone should make a head line in a hall, which otherwise would be without a musical turn.

COMEDY AND PATHOS IN "PACIFIC VALLEY"

A happy mixture of comedy and pathos with a plethora of heart interest practically sums up "Pacific Valley," which the Lyceum Players are offering at the Lyceum theatre, this week. The comedy is of the good old-fashioned comedy drama of a quarter-century ago never takes a single step, and thus regularly is not content to one class of theatre patrons, but is a varied a clientele as any form of amusement.

"Pacific Valley" is a happy tale well told, and as presented by the Lyceum Players it is a sure cure for the blues and sends an audience home with a feeling that life is well worth living after all. Edward Hearn is now the Roman Hero, one young man who chafes under the limitations prescribed by a typical Roman hero in the New England states, takes a position in a summer hotel on the water to earn sufficient money to put himself through college. Mr. Hearn plays the part to happy fashion and shows his versatility by making completely the personality that dominated "Pierre of the Maine" last week.

Richard Frazer makes his first appearance with the Lyceum organization, playing the role of Jack Paraphar, and Chester Warner assumes the role of Andrew. William Vane is in a typical "down east" character as a young man who has just graduated from college and is a graduate of the average product of the "Pegion" drama in popular favor a few years ago.

Harry Cornell plays Wilson, Walter King is cast as Mr. Hand, and Richard Manning is satisfactory as Charley Hand. The feminine roles are for the most part of secondary consideration. There is a final to the production which indicates careful rehearsal conducted by Mr. Cornell.

The settings, while not elaborate are well up to the standard, and set of the lines is becoming fashion.

WOMEN MINSTRELS WILL BE NOVELTY.

The Ladies' Grand Minstrel Show, announced for Friday and Saturday of this week at the Empire theatre, promises to be not only a novelty but a musical treat as well. The show performance is to be given by women, being under the management of the West End local committee of the Women's Catholic league. The proceeds are to be devoted to the public wards of the west end hospitals and the Eleventh street creche.

The minstrel show proper will open the evening's entertainment. The end pieces are Mrs. Curtis, Miss Burger, Miss Cooper, Mrs. Belanger, Miss Shivers and Miss Martin. The inter-lounges will be Miss Mackie. Others taking part in various ways will be Mrs. Jessie Evans Dugan, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Quenneville, Mrs. McLean, Miss Mackie, Miss Mary, Miss Mary Hughes, Miss Rosemary and Miss Gorman, Mrs. Hargrave, Miss Howard and Mrs. Charbonneau. Joseph F. Curtis is the musical director and Mr. F. Murphy will be stage manager.

MISS PANKHURST HAS INTRODUCED NO SLEEP STRIKE

Militant Agitator Adds This to
Her Hunger and Thirst
Strikes

HER CONDITION NOW IS SAID TO BE SERIOUS

Suffragettes Continue Violent
Tactics—Arson Squad Burns
Down Mansion

London, Dec. 15.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, the militant suffragette agitator, since her arrest on December 10th had adopted the more drastic method of adding a "no sleep strike" to her "hunger and thirst strikes" in order to force the prison authorities to release her. She accomplished this by walking continually. Her condition is already serious and her friends expect her release shortly. The police have a plan to keep Miss Pankhurst and her mother in jail until after today's meeting of the Women's Social and Political Union.

In the meantime, the militants continue their violent tactics. The arson squad last night burned down an empty mansion near Bristol. Another party broke every window in the Richmond police station.

Smashed Policemen.
Miss Zella Emmerson, the American suffragette, was brought up in the court today, charged with disturbing the peace last evening in the Bow street district of the east end of London. She appeared with one arm in a sling. It had been badly wrenched in the scuffle with the police.

The police testified that Miss Emmerson had smashed her policeman's helmet with the pole of a banner she was carrying. The magistrate granted bail after she had promised to keep the peace until the conclusion of the case.

Freed Lumber Yard.
The suffragette arson squad today set fire to a lumber yard at Liverpool and destroyed property worth over $100,000. The lumber yards and considerable adjoining property were swept before the blaze was under control.

Quantities of suffragette literature and placards bearing the words "Revenge for the arrest of Mrs. Pankhurst" were found scattered about. The scene of the fire is the spot where "Gerrard's" Mrs. Flora Drummond and other militant suffragettes, Miss Emmeline Pankhurst on her arrival in England from the United States, were found scattered about.

Intrigue Against Winston Churchill

Canadian Associated Press.
London, Dec. 15.—The Liverpool Courier (Unionist) which is often well-informed on inner political movements, gives prominence today to an intrigue against Mr. Hon. Winston Spencer Churchill, which is alleged to be proceeding amongst the Liberal party. The Courier points out how several of the most important ministerial papers have recently shown a hostile attitude towards Mr. Churchill and prophesied that he will eventually leave the ministry and form an independent party.

OFFER IS EQUAL TO A REFUSAL

Lloyd George Replies to Duke's Offer Regarding Sale of Deer Forest

W. A. P. Special Cable.
London, Dec. 15.—Mr. Lloyd George has replied to the offer of the Duke of Sutherland to sell the government a portion of his deer forest. The offer is not published but it is understood the reply is equal to a refusal of the offer. The duke being on route to the West Indies on a holiday trip, it is contrary to official etiquette to publish the text of the letter prior to its receipt by the person to whom it is addressed.

The Daily Express, taking the view that the duke fails to find himself on the other hand, Mr. Lloyd George's preference for discretion to value save the tax payer from the horrid prospect of seeing money wasted on a crazy purchase.

THE NOMINATIONS WERE HELD AT LAO ST. VINCENT

Mr. Gariepy Addresses Electors
—Meeting Held Last Night
at Dennville

(From Evening Edition).
Hon. Wilfrid Gariepy, recently named minister of municipalities in the Brien cabinet, was returned by acclamation Monday at nominations for the by-election in Beaver River constituency nominated by his appointment to a portfolio.

The nominations were held at Lao St. Vincent, from 12 to 2 o'clock, with Leonard Laford acting as returning officer. Quite a crowd was present, and after Mr. Laford had declared Mr. Gariepy re-elected by acclamation, a speech was demanded from the new minister. Mr. Gariepy thanked the electors for their unanimous support, and spoke generally of the work of the Liberal government. Another meeting was held, last evening at Dennville, at which Mr. Gariepy was the chief speaker.

NEW MENACE TO THE EMPIRE DISCOVERED

Imperial Aid Fleet Committee
Wants Dominions to Have
Aerial Defence

London, Dec. 15.—As intimated by the Canadian Associated Press, a bill, now, a scheme is on hand to encourage aviation in the dominions. The matter was made public today by an appeal for $10,000 "to be used in aid of the empire's imperative need of aerial defence and aviation, further complementary units of the imperial air fleet for aerial defence in the overseas dominions." This appeal is signed on behalf of the imperial air fleet committee by Lord Desborough.

It is understood that a well known ex-official of the Canadian government was asked to proceed in an airplane to assess interest in the scheme in Canada, but the prospect did not appeal to the gentleman (thus approached).

HON. WILFRID GARIEPY.

Increase Capacity 500 Barrels Daily

Edmonton Portland Cement Company to Install New Kiln
This Winter

(From Evening Edition).
When the first really cold snap comes the Edmonton Portland Cement Company will close down their works at Marlboro, just west of Edmonton, on the C.P.R. for the winter months. During this time the company will install another kiln with a capacity of 500 barrels per day.

It has been found during the time that the plant has been in active operation since the first of September that the facilities for handling the raw material have been inadequate to keep the shipping end of the plant busy. It is for this reason, as well as to increase the total capacity of the plant, that the new kiln will be installed.

While in operation the company has been employing 150 men at the works. There now are 20,000 barrels of cement in stock. During the time that the plant has been shipping, a standing order from the Saskatchewan government for 1,000 barrels a week has been filled regularly. Other orders have given this Edmonton company heavy business to handle. It is stated by those who have been using the cement that it is of the highest grade on the market today.

Edmonton Ad Club Largest In Whole of Dominion Now

Last Meeting for the Year Hours Encouraging Report, Elects W. J. Magrath as President for Next Year and Listens to Frank Keenan and Fred Lindsay, Noted Stagefolk

The last Ad. Club luncheon for this year was held in the Empire Auditorium yesterday with a record attendance. The annual report of Secretary Miller was a most gratifying one. It showed the finances of the club to be in a prosperous condition, while the membership is now the largest of any Ad. Club in Canada and the largest of any club in the world in a city with a population less than 100,000.

The report showed that while the club started a year ago with 17 members, total yesterday was 217. During the year 17 general meetings were held with an average attendance of 136. The total revenue for the year was $2,408.20, and the disbursements $2,221.82, leaving a balance of the year's operations of $186.38. The resources of the club amount to $1,410.48, with liabilities of $222.

Mr. Frank Keenan, the well known actor, who is playing at the Empire theatre this week, was a guest of honor, and addressed the club. Mr. Keenan reported that most theatrical managers were more interested in money making than they were in the preservation of art and of giving the theatre-going public clean and exciting entertainment. The result was that many plays, with a so-called moral, were being produced, the moral of which every person knew, but the production of which they did not wish to see. There was a good, healthy and paying demand for the legitimate and clean drama, as illustrated by the wonderful success of Sir Forbes Robertson and others. At the conclusion of his address he, by request, recited Cy Worman's well known poem, "The Tiger."

Fred Lindsay, of the Orpheum circuit, also addressed the club. Mr. Lindsay is the owner of a large tract of farm lands in the neighborhood of Saskatoon, which he has under active farming operations, and, therefore, spoke from experience. He claimed the only salvation of the country was in mixed farming. The grain raiser is invariably a borrower, while the mixed farmer is the man with a bank account.

Mr. Lindsay explained that the hope of the country was in getting people on the land, and after getting them there to keep them. Owing to the pressure brought by many foreign corporations, a great many settlers were compelled to leave the land, and he advocated legislation which would relieve this pressure or would provide the necessary fund to carry these settlers over the critical period.

Miss Roberts and Mr. McLean.

RETURN OF "MONA LISA" TO FRANCE BEING REQUESTED

Florence, Italy, Dec. 15.—So great is the crowd of people desiring to obtain a view of Da Vinci's painting "Mona Lisa" that the authorities have been obliged to remove many of the lenses and statues from the Uffizi Gallery to prevent them from being overturned and broken in the struggle to get near the picture. Recentment is vigorously expressed in many quarters at the action of the Italian government in returning the picture to France.

of the Bijou and Empire theatres furnished the musical part of the programme.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, W. J. Magrath; Vice-president, H. A. Roth; Secretary, W. A. Miller; Treasurer, H. H. Hall; Executive committee, M. R. Jennings, A. E. Benn and A. Wolf.

The meeting closed with a hearty vote of thanks and three rousing cheers for Past President McDermid, for the splendid work of the year just closed.

WILL EXEMPLIFY AMERICAN IDEALS

British Landscape Artist Fears
American Town Planner's
Work at Ottawa

Ottawa, Dec. 15.—In an interview Mr. Thomas Lawson, the noted English landscape artist, referred to the appointment of Mr. Bennett at Chicago by the Ottawa and Hull town planning commission for the planning of the capital and surroundings. He believes that the work that will be done by Mr. Bennett will be American, and, as he explains, as each school of town planners interprets in its work the ideals and characteristics of the nation to which it belongs this is what he is afraid will happen here.

A British artist, on the other hand, would have in his work expatriated British ideals upon sound economic considerations and clothed in heavily he said.

in England

STOCKS ARE NOWHERE
DANGEROUSLY HEAVY

C.P.R. and G.T.P. Stocks Recede
as Result of Press Criticism of New Financing

W. A. P. Special Cable.

London, Dec. 14.—Loan rates were easy despite the fact that floating credits were small. Preparations for the year end are already commencing. Bill rates were unchanged though there is still buying short time bills. Bankers think that Berlin may now send gold here as a result of the reduction of the bank rate in that city.

Some American railways are renewing their efforts to place blocks of short term notes here while others are trying to buy back notes recently sold on a profitable basis to London. The prospects are that of capital for flotations of all sorts in the New Year will reach a record.

The stock markets were dull. Dividend securities were heavy on the indications of increased taxation in the New Year, but the immediate outlook for Canada is steadier, as support in exports has been bought for the annual balance sheets are made up.

C.P.R. was again depressed, falling more than a dollar. The market and press criticism of the new financing does not abate, and brokers are less confident of the outlook for Canadian Pacific than four months ago. Grand Trunk was weaker in sympathy and Canadian Industrial was sold freely. Canadian Crea fell three points. Montreal is selling. Brazilian securities heavy on growing adverse financial rumors from South America.

Trade rumors are conflicting. The industrial reaction is beginning to cause financial strain in the Midland centres and serious trouble is not likely. Buyers are more inclined to meet sellers. There is no indication of a general revival but the year is finding better than expected, and industrial stocks are nowhere dangerously heavy.

Demonstration in Madrid.

Madrid, Dec. 15.—The Radical election, including a number of Republicans, held a demonstration yesterday urging the government to end the war in Morocco. The demonstration was not so imposing as had been expected.

WOODEN pails and tubs are as much out of date as the sailing vessel or the first horseless carriage—and just as unpractical.

Eddy's Fibreware
